

Bergen Volunteers Redefining Retirement Program

The Redefining Retirement Program encourages retirees and others to contribute their experience, skills, and interests as volunteers with non-profits helping others across Bergen County.

Volunteer opportunities are continuing to grow as nonprofits and agencies carefully return to normal operations, while staying mindful of current health guidelines. In addition, there are remote and virtual opportunities available.

To learn more about the ways to contribute to you community, The Bergen Volunteers Redefining Retirement Program is hosting a virtual information session on:

Tuesday, April 13, 2021

11:00- 12:00 noon Eastern

Via Zoom Meeting

During the session, participants will be provided with information about how to become a volunteer, currently available opportunities and the types of opportunities that will expand over time.
